WILLIAM I. HALLIDAY

William I. Halliday, 86, died Friday morning in his home in Aberdeen.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:30 o'clock in the Paetznick Funeral Home, with the Rev. L. C. Benson officiating. Mrs. Amos Doeringsfeld and Mrs. Clayton Gibbs sang several hymns, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Williams. Burial was in the Scotland cemetery.

William Imrie Halliday was born August 18, 1865, at Odell, Ill. He came to Dakota Territory in April, 1883, and settled with his parents south of Andover in Scotland township, where he served the community for many years with his musical talent. In 1926 he moved to Bath, S. D., where he resided until moving to Aberdeen in 1942. Mr. Halliday had a sterling character and kindly disposition, which he retained up to his passing.
